CONVICTS AT LARGE

POSSES FAIL TO CAPTURE OUTLAWS WHO ESCAPED FROM FOLSOM PRISON.

HEAD FOR THE MOUNTAINS

PURSUERS ARE CLOSE BEHIND AND A DESPERATE BATTLE IS EXPECTED.

Placerville, Cal., July 29.—Of the thirteen convicts who escaped from the state penitentiary at Folsom Monday, twelve are still at large. Joe Murphy, who was serving a fourteen-year sentence for robbery, was shot dead Monday night at Pilot Hill. S. M. Gordon, the reported leader of the gang, who had been sentenced to forty-five years for robbery, deserted his followers soon after they left the prison. He was heavily armed and it is not known in what direction he sought safety. A negro convict named Seavis, who was reported wounded in the first encounter with the officers, appears not to have been injured. The eleven outlaws who remain together are making for the Sierra Nevada mountains. They are closely pursued by the sheriffs of Sacramento, Eldorado and Placer counties, each backed by numerous deputies and assisted by a company of militia. About twenty guards from the Folsom prison are also engaged in the chase. It is believed that the fugitives will soon be surrounded and a desperate battle anticipated, as all are heavily armed. The work of the pursuing posse has been rendered less difficult than was anticipated by the unexpected action of the convicts, who Tuesday released all of the men they held as hostages. It is thought that this course was prompted by lack of food and ammunition. The eleven are now believed to be near Placerville, in Eldorado county, in a rough country and not far from the mountains which they evidently hope to make their refuge.

Fight at Pilot Hill.

The fight at Pilot Hill Monday night between the convicts and their pursuers seems to have been a more serious affair than at first reported. After they had looted a store at Pilot Hill they were practically surrounded by the sheriffs of Sacramento and Placer counties, each commanding a strong posse. All four horses on the convicts' wagon were shot and one of the criminals was killed outright. Then the outlaws ran up a white flag and marched up the road with guards and others whom they had captured on each side of them. A general volley was not ordered, as it might have killed several innocent men. In this deliberate manner the second escape was made. Now that the captives have been freed, the pursuing officers have been instructed to shoot the convicts on sight and their death or capture in the near future is expected.

The coroner's jury in the case of W. L. Cotter rendered a verdict of murder against all the convicts who escaped. The inquest was held at Folsom prison.

A report was received here last evening to the effect that eight convicts were seen making their way northward along Greenwood creek toward the town of Greenwood, where it is probable a raid will be made by the fugitives. It is known they are very short of provisions. Poses are now in pursuit and the residents of Greenwood will organize a defense party to protect the town.

IN A DRUNKEN QUARREL.

Two Italians Killed and Another Probably Fatally Wounded.

Gillette, Wyo., July 29.—In a drunken quarrel among a number of Italians at Felix Tuesday, two men were killed and another probably fatally wounded.

Joe Datri and Domini Eggle got into an altercation and Datri struck Eggle over the head with a bottle, inflicting a severe scalp wound. Eggle stabbed Datri fatally.

Frank Bellagalla and Nick Eggle then entered the fight, taking opposite sides. Bellagalla shot and killed Nick Eggle. Domini Eggle and Bellagalla then exchanged shots, the latter being killed and the former badly wounded.

SAFEBLOWERS FOILED.

Made a Daring Attempt to Rob a Bank at Proctor Knott, Minn.

Duluth, July 29.—A daring but unsuccessful attempt was made at an early hour Tuesday morning to rob the Missabank at Proctor Knott, of which Hamilton H. Peyton of this city is president.

Nitroglycerin and dynamite were the explosives used by the safeblowers, and while the interior of the bank building, as well as a large new safe owned by the bank, are badly wrecked, the burglars got nothing for their pains, being compelled to flee before they could get into the strong box.

Finds Valuable Pearl.

Winona, Minn., July 29.—F. J. Miller, an aged man clamming near Dresbach, found a remarkably fine pearl. On taking it to a jeweler he was offered $900 for the gem, which he promptly accepted.

MARTIN EBELT CONFESSES.

Admits Strangling His Wife and Hiding Her Body in a Sewer.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., July 29.—Martin Ebelt was held Tuesday night to the grand jury for the murder of his wife, whose body was found in a sewer on Sunday. He confessed freely and without the least tremor or seeming fear.

In the morning Ebelt was examined by the coroner and Chief Foley and then was led to the morgue where lay the body of the murdered woman. Ebelt gazed upon the corpse with an indifferent air and admitted that it was that of his wife. In response to further questions he suddenly exclaimed:

"Oh, I did it."

After this admission he went on to say that he had been worried by her demands for money and had decided to get rid of her.

When the inquest was resumed in the evening, he said that a week before he had noted a break in the sewer pipe which he calculated would serve him to hide the body. He then prepared the way for the murder by telling his wife he had found a place for her to work and requested her to get ready and he would take her to the place.

On the way, he said, they quarreled, and after choking the woman to death with his hands he tied a shoestring around her neck and lowered the body into the sewer, expecting that it would be swept down into the south.

This confession was signed by the prisoner, who was then formally committed.

RESCUED BY THE POLICE.

Hungarian Narrowly Escapes Lynching by West Virginia Mob.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 29.—But for the timely arrival of policemen, John Postech, a Hungarian steel worker, would have been strung up by an angry mob on Wheeling Island last night. Postech, who was drunk, caught in his arms and embraced a well known and respected lady residing on the island as she was returning home over the steel bridge unescorted late in the evening. The woman's cries were quickly answered by citizens who rushed from their homes. The man took to his heels, pursued by a crowd which was increased every minute. When the mob drew close to the foreigner he wheeled and drew a dirk fully twelve inches in length and held the mob at bay for a time. A cobbler stone hurled the knife out of the man's hand, while another struck him upon the head and knocked him down.

Stone after stone was rained upon the unconscious man in rapid succession and a rope was quickly sent for by the now thoroughly aroused citizens, who were until that time under the impression that a criminal assault had been committed. Vengeance had been decided upon and a convenient shade tree picked out when a force of policemen arrived upon the scene and rescued the Hungarian from the mob's hands. He is in a serious condition.

FIERCE RIOT IN OHIO.

Mob of Three Hundred Whites Vainly Tries to Lynch Two Negroes.

Lorain, O., July 29.—A fierce riot in which a mob of 300 whites chased two colored men, threatening to lynch them, took place here last night.

Early in the evening two colored men, Charles Hall and Robert Pleasant, became involved in an altercation with a white man named Daniel Cronan. One of the colored men drew a razor and cut Cronan severely on the face and neck. A mob immediately gathered and the negroes were chased over the entire south end of the city, one of them taking refuge in a saloon, the entire front of which was battered in with stones. The negroes, however, escaped.

The entire day and night force of police was ordered on duty and specials were sworn in.

Late at night Pleasant was arrested and taken by side streets to the local station, where he was locked up, while the crowd still continued their search, a number of shots being fired.

At a late hour Mayor King addressed the crowd, saying the injuries of Cronan were not serious and asking them to quietly disperse to their homes. His words had a quieting effect and the mob dispersed.

SHOOT TWO YOUNG MEN.

H. W. Ackles Fatally Wounds Isaac Allen and Jack Maher.

Atlantic, Ia., July 29.—H. W. Ackles shot and fatally wounded Isaac Allen and Jack Maher, two young men, early Tuesday at the Ackles home. The shooting followed a quarrel.

Printers Return to Work.

Spokane, Wash., July 29.—The striking printers returned to work in the Spokesman Review composing room last night. The return of the printers is in the nature of a truce, pending efforts to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the differences by the higher authorities at Chicago.

VILLAGES ARE DESTROYED.

Cyclone Causes Heavy Loss of Life in Russia.

St. Petersburg, July 29.—A terrific cyclone has passed through the district of Tchernigol. Three villages were destroyed in a few minutes. Churches and houses were lifted bodily and carried a long distance. The loss of life was great.

SETTLE DIFFERENCES

POPULIST LEADERS SUCCEED IN UNITING THE TWO FACTIONS OF THE PARTY.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE

AFFILIATION WITH EITHER THE REPUBLICANS OR DEMOCRATS IS OPPOSED.

Denver, July 29.—The conference of Populist leaders which has been in session two days, adjourned sine die Tuesday evening. The resolutions committee reported an address to the people which was adopted, declaring that all differences between the two factions of the party have been settled. It is expected that the two national committees which meet here today will ratify this action. The committee appointed to select the members of a committee of one from each state on organization work in connection with the national committee was unable to complete this work and it was by resolution empowered to complete the committee at its leisure. The gentlemen to whom this important work is delegated are J. A. Edgerton of Colorado, Milton Park of Texas, J. H. Calderhead of Montana and C. C. DeFrance of Nebraska. They are to be members of the larger committee when it is completed.

The following address was reported by the committee on resolutions and was adopted:

"The manifest unrest which everywhere appears in the nation demonstrates the dissatisfaction of the American people with the present management of government and argues the necessity of the reform forces coming together in united action at the ballot box to obtain proper legislation whereby the right of the people to self government may be had for themselves and their posterity."

All Differences Settled.

"Therefore, we, the Populists of the United States, having this day at the city of Denver united forces with the distinct understanding that all past differences as to policy shall be and now are permanently settled, and experience has demonstrated the futility of any attempt to secure the enactment of our truth, either through the Republican or Democratic parties, we believe the time is now at hand when the United Peoples' party should declare itself emphatically opposed to any affiliation with either of these parties and unqualifiedly in favor of national political action."

"Our fundamental principles are known to all Populists and are nowhere better stated than in that immortal document enunciated at Omaha, July 4, 1898. However, for the benefit of the uninformed, we declare our unyielding adherence to the demands for (A) a money whether stamped on gold, silver or paper, to be coined and issued exclusively by the government and made a full legal tender for all debts, both public and private; (B) a system of transportation and the transmission of intelligence, owned by the public and operated by the government at cost of service; (C) land for use rather than speculation, and abolition of alien ownership of land; (D) American ships for American foreign commerce, without a cent of subsidy."

Initiative and Referendum.

"And, as an open door for all economic reforms, we urge the rule of the people through the optional referendum and initiative and the recall of derelict officials."

"Confident in the justice of the principles here set forth, firmly confident that their triumph in government would be for the best interests of the people, we call upon the patriotic citizens of this country to join with us in bringing about their enactment into law. With these principles firmly established, social justice would prevail, special privileges would be eliminated and ours would be, as patriots everywhere desire, a government of the people, for the people, by the people."

The afternoon session was largely taken up in short addresses. The committee to nominate an organization committee reported its inability to complete its work at this time and its members were appointed an organization committee with power to add to its membership one man from each state and territory in the union. This committee is to carry on the work of organization until the next national convention, when it is expected that formal amalgamation of the two Populist parties will take place.

WOMAN AND CHILD PERISH.

Former Attempted to Rescue the Latter and Both Are Drowned.

Port Huron, Mich., July 29.—Mrs. George Taylor of Sarnia, Ont., and Jennie Thompson, a small child from this city, were drowned in the St. Clair river near here. Body of Mrs. Lucid Found.

Neola, Ia., July 29.—Mrs. Thomas Lucid, who mysteriously disappeared from home Monday, was found dead in a small stream near here Tuesday afternoon. The inquest occurs today.

ACQUIRES A RAILROAD.

Rock Island Absorbs the Evansville and Terre Haute Line.

New York, July 29.—The Rock Island system, through the medium of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, Tuesday acquired control of the Evansville and Terre Haute and its subsidiary lines by taking over the holdings of the syndicate headed by Edwin S. Hooley, senior partner of the firm of Edwin S. Hooley & Co., the failure of which was announced on Monday.

Official announcement of the change in ownership was made late Tuesday by L. B. Pearson, assistant secretary of the Evansville and Terre Haute, after a meeting of the board of directors held at the office of the road.

At the same time Mr. Hooley resigned as president and director of the Evansville and Terre Haute, and B. F. Yoakum, president of the St. Louis and San Francisco, was elected to succeed him in both offices. Mr. Hooley also resigned the presidency of several subsidiary roads, and Mr. Yoakum was elected to his place. No other changes were made in the board of directors of any of the lines. W. L. Stow, of the suspended firm of W. L. Stow & Co., who is also a director of the Evansville and Terre Haute, retaining his connection with the property.

From sources other than official it was learned that the price was around $50.

SHIFTING HIS GROUND.

Opponents of Chamberlain Claim He Is Wavering.

London, July 29.—It is stated that arrangements have been made to call a special meeting of the cabinet about the end of September, by which time it is anticipated that the minister's investigations of the fiscal problem will have been completed and the cabinet will be in a position to reach a definite decision on Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's proposals. Premier Balfour will address the national Conservative Union Oct. 1, and he is expected to announce the government's policy on that occasion. Mr. Chamberlain's opponents claim, as a result of the reception given to his proposals by parliament and the country, that he is already shifting his ground.

PEACE WILL BE PRESERVED.

No Danger of War in the Far East for Some Time.

London, July 29.—The Daily Chronicle this morning, on the authority of "a usually well informed correspondent," hears that peace will certainly be preserved in the Far East throughout the coming winter. The correspondent says that Russia has made important concessions to the United States and Japan, while Great Britain, which has conducted her negotiations on more sober lines, also has obtained her desires.

The Chronicle adds that an important Russian declaration will be issued shortly.

Meanwhile the paper says it is significant that two British warships have just left Wei Hai Wei.

DEMURRER OVERRULED.

C. P. Maginnis of Duluth to Stand Trial on Two Charges.

Duluth, July 29.—Judge Page Morris, in the United States court here, overruled the demurrer to five indictments against C. P. Maginnis, former receiver of the United States land office here, in which he is charged with subornation of perjury and conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with stone and timber entries. When arrested here several months ago Maginnis pleaded not guilty. Subsequently he withdrew the plea and filed the demurrer alleging insufficient evidence to substantiate a case. He will now re-enter a plea of not guilty and stand trial at the forthcoming term of court.

USED MAILS TO DEFRAUD.

Henry A. Bradford Arrested by Post Office Inspectors.

St. Louis, July 29.—Henry A. Bradford was arrested here Tuesday by postoffice inspectors on the charge of using the mails in a scheme to defraud, as a result of an investigation of land title swindles that has been in progress since last December. The investigation has been pursued in Colorado, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Missouri, Texas, Kansas, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and North Carolina.

Bradford's arrest resulted from complaints that he was using the mails to send fraudulent land titles. Bradford's bond was fixed at $2,000, but up to a late hour last night he had failed to give bond.

Postoffice Inspector Dice said the investigation has led to the arrest of thirteen other men on similar charges, in different parts of the country, and he is of the opinion that Bradford's arrest will mark the final collapse of one of the most gigantic land swindles in the history of the country.

Bradford was arrested here on May 5, 1900, on the charge of using the mails to defraud, but was acquitted upon the ground that the offense did not conform to the facts set forth in the indictment.

SHOOT AT A FAMILY.

Supposed Lunatic Attempts to Commit Wholesale Murder.

Red Wing, Minn., July 29.—A man giving the name of William Harrington went to the home of Charles Black in Welch, and asked for breakfast. After finishing the meal he fired several shots at the family, all of them missing. One of the Black boys fired a charge of buckshot into the man's face and he was overpowered. Harrington will be examined for insanity.

ORDERS A NEW RING

CARDINAL OREGLIA TO OBTAIN A SUBSTITUTE FOR FISHERMAN'S CIRCLET.

DRIFTING FURTHER APART

SPLIT IN SACRED COLLEGE MAY RESULT IN ELECTION OF FOREIGNER AS POPE.

Rome, July 29.—The Tribune says that as the fisherman's ring, which could not be found after the death of the pope, may be discovered in some drawer which was sealed up and cannot be opened until after the election of the new pope, the camerlengo, Cardinal Oreglia, has ordered a new one for use in the symbolic ceremony which occurs immediately after the successor to Leo XIII is chosen.

The member of the noble guard who was overcome during the requiem mass in the sistine chapel Tuesday morning while on duty beside the catafalque, was Count Stampa, who a few days ago was placed under arrest for feigning illness. He had a slight attack of syncope.

It is officially announced that in addition to the will of the late pope, and separate from it, Leo XIII left a trifling present to each of a long list of relatives, members of the papal household, prelates, doctors, cardinals, etc. As many formalities have to be observed, it probably will be some time before the gifts are delivered.

That there is a new conviction at the Vatican that the conclave will be of short duration is proved by the fact that all those who are to enter the conclave to minister to the wants of the cardinals have been engaged for three days. The two camps into which the sacred college is divided appear to be becoming daily more irreconcilable and it is said that the anti-Rampolla faction has declared that, if necessary to defeat the opposition, they will even go to the length of supporting a foreign cardinal. The name of Cardinal Kopp, bishop of Breslau, was mentioned in this connection, but was hardly considered seriously, owing to the belief that under present conditions the elevation of a German to the papacy might mean the irreparable loss of France to the holy see.

MANY NOTABLES ATTEND.

First of the Great Requiem Masses Celebrated in Rome.

Rome, July 28.—The first of the three great requiem masses under the auspices of the sacred college for the repose of the soul of Pope Leo was celebrated during the morning in the Sistine chapel.

All the cardinals now in Rome, the diplomatic corps, the Roman nobility and many other distinguished persons were present. No such mass had been seen in Rome since the death of Pius IX.

APPEAL FOR INDEPENDENCE.

Hawaiians May Forward a Petition to Congress.

Honolulu, July 29.—At Tuesday's session of the Home Rule convention, ex-Delegate Wilcox urged that congress be memorialized to grant Hawaiian independence. He also strongly favored the establishment of a government for the islands similar to that of Cuba. His remarks were received with much applause. It is probable that a petition embodying the views expressed by Wilcox will be prepared for presentation to congress. Such an appeal would doubtless receive the signature of many natives.

FOUR PERSONS DROWNED.

Sad Accident Follows Opening of a Dam in Allegheny River.

Pittsburg, July 29.—A sad accident followed shortly after the opening of dam No. 1 in the Allegheny at Herr's Island Tuesday evening, in which four young people were drowned. Their names are: Joseph Brown, aged nineteen; Henry Brown, fourteen; Frederick Bugler, Jr., and Edna Shipley, thirteen.

After the ceremonies incident to the opening of the dam, which is the first to be built in the proposed Allegheny river slack water system, the three boys were riding around below the dam in a skiff and, seeing three girl friends on the bank, invited them to join in the ride. When all had been seated, the skiff was headed for the dam and when within a short distance from the structure the suction from the "bear trap" drew the boat, in spite of the boys' frantic efforts, under the water flowing over the dam. The accident was witnessed by hundreds of people and rescuers were quickly at work, but before the party could be reached, four of the number were drowned.

EXTRADITION OF WRIGHT.

British Promoter Will Be Taken Back to England.

New York, July 29.—United States Marshal Henckel has received from Acting Secretary of State Adeed the original warrant of extradition for Whitaker Wright, the London promoter, who has been confined in Ludlow street jail since April last on charges preferred against him by the shareholders of the London and Globe Finance Corporation. Inspectors Willis and Phillips of the London city police will be on board the White Star steamer Oceanic today to receive Wright, and in their custody he will make the trip to London.

TRANSPORT DIX AGROUND.

Will Probably Take Forty Days to Repair the Damage.

Washington, July 29.—Quartermaster General Humphrey has been informed by cable that the transport Dix went aground off the Japan coast last Saturday. She has since been docked at Tokyo and it is estimated that it will take forty days to make the necessary repairs, as she is in rather bad condition. The Dix is a freighter and had on board 225 tons of Philippine exhibits for the St. Louis exposition.

GENERAL RAMOS SURRENDERS.

Venezuelan Insurgent Chief and His Men Lay Down Their Arms.

Caracas, Venezuela, July 29.—General Antonio Ramos, one of the last of the chiefs of the revolution to remain in the field, who had a camp near Santa Lucia, has surrendered to the government, together with 400 men, their arms and ammunition.

Albert Swanson Found.

Duluth, July 29.—Albert Swanson, the five-year-old boy for whom 100,000 have been searching since his disappearance from home near Gowan, Minn., Friday afternoon, was found exhausted in the heart of a cedar swamp by John La Prairie.

THREE MEN MISSING.

Feared That They Have All Been Drowned.

Beaumont, Muskoka, Ont., July 29.—Joseph Hosack, Princeton student; Walter Mohard, a student of Johns Hopkins university, with a cousin to Hosack, set out from Gravenhurst in a canoe on Sunday. The paddles and Mohard's coat were picked up on the lake Tuesday. It is feared all three have been drowned.

I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

Printers Return to Work.

Spokane, Wash., July 29.—The striking printers returned to work in the Spokesman Review composing room last night. The return of the printers is in the nature of a truce. They are to be paid the new scale, pending efforts to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the differences by the higher authorities at Chicago.

VILLAGES ARE DESTROYED.

SETTLE DIFFERENCES

POPULIST LEADERS SUCCEED IN UNITING THE TWO FACTIONS OF THE PARTY.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE

AFFILIATION WITH EITHER THE REPUBLICANS OR DEMOCRATS IS OPPOSED.

Denver, July 29.—The conference of Populist leaders which has been in session two days, adjourned sine die Tuesday evening. The resolutions committee reported an address to the people which was adopted, declaring that all differences between the two factions of the party have been settled. It is expected that the two national committees which meet here today will ratify this action. The committee appointed to select the members of a committee of one from each state on organization work in connection with the national committee was unable to complete this work and it was by resolution empowered to complete the committee at its leisure. The gentlemen to whom this important work is delegated are J. A. Edgerton of Colorado, Milton Park of Texas, J. H. Calderhead of Montana and C. C. DeFrance of Nebraska. They are to be members of the larger committee when it is completed.

The following address was reported by the committee on resolutions and was adopted: "The manifest unrest which everywhere appears in the nation demonstrates the dissatisfaction of the American people with the present management of government, and argues the necessity of the reform forces coming together in united action at the ballot box to obtain proper legislation whereby the right of the people to self government may be had for themselves and their posterity."

All Differences Settled.

"Therefore, we, the Populists of the United States, having this day at the city of Denver united forces with the distinct understanding that all past differences as to policy shall be and now are permanently settled, and experience has demonstrated the futility of any attempt to secure the endorsement of our truth, either through the Republican or Democratic parties, we believe the time is now at hand when the United Peoples' party should declare itself emphatically opposed to any affiliation with either of these parties and unqualifiedly in favor of national political action."

"Our fundamental principles are known to all Populists and are no more better stated than in that immortal document enunciated at Omaha, July 4, 1898. However, for the benefit of the uninformed, we declare our unyielding adherence to the demands for (A) a money whether stamped on gold, silver or paper, to be coined and issued exclusively by the government and made a full legal tender for all debts, both public and private; (B) a system of transportation and the transmission of intelligence, owned by the public and operated by the government at cost of service; (C) land for use rather than speculation, and abolition of alien ownership of land; (D) American ships for American foreign commerce, without a cent of subsidy."

Initiative and Referendum.

"And, as an open door for all economic reforms, we urge the rule of the people through the optional referendum and initiative and the recall of derelict officials."

"Confident in the justice of the principles here set forth, firmly confident that their triumph in government would be for the best interests of the people, we call upon the patriotic citizens of this country to join with us in bringing about their enactment into law. With these principles firmly established, equal justice would prevail, special privileges would be eliminated and ours would be, as patriots everywhere desire, a government of the people, for the people, by the people."

The afternoon session was largely taken up in short addresses. The committee to nominate an organization committee reported its inability to complete its work at this time and its members were appointed an organization committee with power to add to its membership one man from each state and territory in the union. This committee is to carry on the work of organization until the next national convention, when it is expected that formal amalgamation of the two Populist parties will take place.

Port Huron, Mich., July 29.—Mrs. George Taylor of Sarnia, Ont., and Jennie Thompson, a small child from this city, were drowned in the St. Clair river near here. ACQUIRES A RAILROAD.

Rock Island Absorbs the Evansville and Terre Haute Line.

New York, July 29.—The Rock Island system, through the medium of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, Tuesday acquired control of the Evansville and Terre Haute and its subsidiary lines by taking over the holdings of the syndicate headed by Edwin S. Hooley, senior partner of the firm of Edwin S. Hooley & Co., the failure of which was announced on Monday.

Official announcement of the change in ownership was made late Tuesday by L. B. Pearson, assistant secretary of the Evansville and Terre Haute, after a meeting of the board of directors held at the office of the road.

At the same time Mr. Hooley resigned as president and director of the Evansville and Terre Haute, and E. P. Yoakum, president of the St. Louis and San Francisco, was elected to succeed him in both offices. Mr. Hooley also resigned the presidency of several subsidiary roads, and Mr. Yoakum was elected to his place. No other changes were made in the board of directors of any of the lines. W. L. Stow, of the suspended firm of W. L. Stow & Co., who is also a director of the Evansville and Terre Haute, retaining his connection with the property.

From sources other than official it was learned that the price was around 50.

SHIFTING HIS GROUND.

Opponents of Chamberlain Claim He Is Wavering.

London, July 29.—It is stated that arrangements have been made to call a special meeting of the cabinet about the end of September, by which time it is anticipated that the minister's investigations of the fiscal problem will have been completed and the cabinet will be in a position to reach a definite decision on Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's proposals. Premier Balfour will address the national Conservative Union Oct. 1, and he is expected to announce the government's policy on that occasion. Mr. Chamberlain's opponents claim, as a result of the reception given to his proposals by parliament and the country, that he is already shifting his ground.

PEACE WILL BE PRESERVED.

No Danger of War in the Far East for Some Time.

London, July 29.—The Daily Chronicle this morning, on the authority of "a usually well informed correspondent," hears that peace will certainly be preserved in the Far East throughout the coming winter. The correspondent says that Russia has made important concessions to the United States and Japan, while Great Britain, which has conducted her negotiations on more sober lines, also has obtained her desires.

The Chronicle adds that an important Russian declaration will be issued shortly. Meanwhile the paper says it is significant that two British warships have just left Wei Hai Wei.

DEMURRER OVERRULED.

C. P. Maginnis of Duluth to Stand Trial on Two Charges.

Duluth, July 29.—Judge Page Morris, in the United States court here, overruled the demurrer to five indictments against C. P. Maginnis, former receiver of the United States land office here, in which he is charged with subornation of perjury and conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with stone and timber entries. When arrested here several months ago Maginnis pleaded not guilty. Subsequently he withdrew the plea and filed the demurrer alleging insufficient evidence to substantiate a case. He will now re-enter a plea of not guilty and stand trial at the forthcoming term of court.

USED MAILS TO DEFRAUD.

Henry A. Bradford Arrested by Postoffice Inspectors.

St. Louis, July 29.—Henry A. Bradford was arrested here Tuesday by postoffice inspectors on the charge of using the mails in a scheme to defraud, as a result of an investigation of land title swindles that has been in progress since last December. The investigation has been pursued in Colorado, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Missouri, Texas, Kansas, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and North Carolina.

Bradford's arrest resulted from complaints that he was using the mails to send fraudulent land titles. Bradford's bond was fixed at $2,000, but up to a late hour last night he had failed to give bond.

Postoffice Inspector Dice said the investigation has led to the arrest of thirteen other men on similar charges. In different parts of the country, and he is of the opinion that Bradford's arrest will mark the final collapse of one of the most gigantic land swindles in the history of the country.

Bradford was arrested here on May 5, 1900, on the charge of using the mails to defraud, but was acquitted upon the ground that the offense did not conform to the facts set forth in the indictment.

SHOOTS AT A FAMILY.

Supposed Lunatic Attempts to Commit Wholesale Murder.

Red Wing, Minn., July 29.—A man giving the name of William Harrington went to the home of Charles Black in Welch, and asked for breakfast. After finishing the meal he fired several shots at the family, all of them missing. One of the Black boys fired a charge of buckshot into the man's face and he was overpowered. Harrington will be examined for insanity.

ORDERS A NEW RING

CARDINAL OREGLIA TO OBTAIN A SUBSTITUTE FOR FISHERMAN'S CIRCLER.

DRIFTING FURTHER APART

SPLIT IN SACRED COLLEGE MAY RESULT IN ELECTION OF FOREIGNER AS POPE.

Rome, July 29.—The Tribune says that as the fisherman's ring, which could not be found after the death of the pope, may be discovered in some drawer which was sealed up and cannot be opened until after the election of the new pope, the camerlengo, Cardinal Oreglia, has ordered a new one for use in the symbolic ceremony which occurs immediately after the successor to Leo XIII is chosen. The member of the noble guard who was overcome during the requiem mass in the sistine chapel Tuesday morning while on duty beside the catafalque, was Count Stampa, a few days ago was placed under arrest for feigning illness. He had a slight attack of syncope.

It is officially announced that in addition to the will of the late pope, and separate from it, Leo XIII left a trifling present to each of a long list of relatives, members of the papal household, prelates, doctors, cardinals, etc. As many formalities have to be observed, it probably will be some time before the gifts are delivered.

That there is a new conviction at the Vatican that the conclave will be of short duration is proved by the fact that all those who are to enter the conclave to minister to the wants of the cardinals have been engaged for three days. The two camps into which the sacred college is divided appear to be becoming daily more irreconcilable and it is said that the anti-Kampolla faction has declared that, if necessary to defeat the opposition, they will even go to the length of supporting a foreign cardinal. The name of Cardinal Kopp, bishop of Breslau, was mentioned in this connection, but was hardly considered seriously, owing to the belief that under present conditions the elevation of a German to the papacy might mean the irreparable loss of France to the holy see.

MANY NOTABLES ATTEND.

First of the Great Requiem Masses Celebrated in Rome.

Rome, July 28.—The first of the three great requiem masses under the auspices of the sacred college for the repose of the soul of Pope Leo was celebrated during the morning in the Sistine chapel. All the cardinals now in Rome, the diplomatic corps, the Roman nobility and many other distinguished persons were present. No such mass had been seen in Rome since the death of Pius IX.

APPEAL FOR INDEPENDENCE.

Hawaiians May Forward a Petition to Congress.

Honolulu, July 29.—At Tuesday's session of the Home Rule convention, ex-Delegate Wilcox urged that congress be memorialized to grant Hawaiian independence. He also strongly favored the establishment of a government for the islands similar to that of Cuba. His remarks were received with much applause. It is probable that a petition embodying the views expressed by Wilcox will be prepared for presentation to congress. Such an appeal would doubtless receive the signature of many natives.

FOUR PERSONS DROWNED.

Sad Accident Follows Opening of a Dam in Allegheny River.

Pittsburg, July 29.—A sad accident followed shortly after the opening of dam No. 1 in the Allegheny at Herr's Island Tuesday evening, in which four young people were drowned. Their names are: Joseph Brown, aged nineteen; Henry Brown, fourteen; Frederick Bugler, Jr., and Edna Shipley, thirteen.

After the ceremonies incident to the opening of the dam, which is the first to be built in the proposed Allegheny river slack water system, the three boys were riding around below the dam in a skiff and, seeing three girl friends on the bank, invited them to join in the ride. When all had been seated, the skiff was headed for the dam and when within a short distance from the structure the suction from the "bear trap" drew the boat, in spite of the boys' frantic efforts, under the water flowing over the dam. The accident was witnessed by hundreds of people and rescuers were quickly at work, but before the party could be reached, four of the number were drowned.

Washington, July 29.—Quartermaster General Humphrey has been informed by cable that the transport Dix went aground off the Japan coast last Saturday. Feared That They Have All Been Drowned.

The paddles and Mehard's coat were picked up on the lake Tuesday. It is feared all three have been drowned.

MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the sallow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter to hear that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

Mrs. Ida McDonald.

that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Theodor's Black-Draught.

KANGAROO COURT is in session at Fargo during the carnival. We hardly think Brainerd would stand for that.

BALTIMORE'S bank clearances showed an increase of something over a million dollars during the week the Elks' grand lodge was in session there, which goes to show that the members of that fraternity are not niggardly.

LISTEN to what the democratic mayor of St. Louis says: "I want honest, capable men appointed. If you can't find them among the democrats, appoint republicans." These are strenuous times in St. Louis political circles.

A LITTLE FALLS gentleman wrote State Auditor Iverson as follows: "Some one has told me that if a man in the country had seven sons born to him in succession and no females at all he got a reward from a king, and he has told me that he heard they get it here, too, so I drop these few lines to you asking you to answer if I could get such reward as a case of that kind has happened to me." To which the Transcript adds that the only advantage of having a family of seven sons in this state is that they are worth more about election time than are that many girls.

Jewels on an Idol.

The jewels of an Indian idol must be worth stealing if many of those remarkably hideous images possess such valuable lead ornaments as one made for the idol Parthasathy, in the Triplicane temple at Madras. The ornament is worth some 50,000 rupees and is made of sovereign gold, studded with diamonds, emeralds and rubies, the largest emerald being valued at 1,000 rupees and the biggest ruby and diamond at 300 rupees apiece.

Keep Moving.

The heavens themselves run continually round; the world is never still; the sun travels to the east and to the west; the moon is ever changing in its course; the stars and planets have their constant motions; the air we breathe is continually agitated by the wind, and the waters never cease to ebb and flow, doubtless for the purpose of their conservation and to teach us that we should ever be in action.—Burton.

A Contrast in Lungs.

Three human lungs lie next one another in the anatomical museum at Edinburgh university. The first is that of an Eskimo and is snow white. In life this would, of course, be ruddy from the presence of blood. The third is that of a coal miner and is coal black. The intermediate one is that of a town dweller and is a dirty slate gray, as are the lungs of all dwellers in cities at this moment.

For the Younger Women.

A very favorite style of dress at present for the jeune fille of Parisian society is of white batiste incrustated with English embroidery over some delicate color. The bodice, which is made just slightly blousing, is taken into a deep corselet of liberty silk in the same shade as that already appearing on the dress, and with this style of gown a large hat in Italian straw is generally worn, trimmed with black velvet and long white wings.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

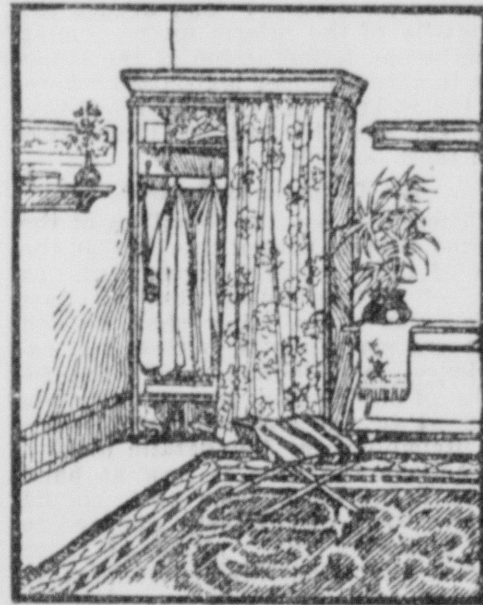

Clover Blossoms in the House.

The pretty red clover blossoms are to be had in great abundance in the summer season and require only a trip into the country to be obtained in any quantity desired. The housewife welcomes the clover blossoms, for they are just the thing to fill the sachet bags she uses in her linen closets. The sachets may be made of net, drawn up with narrow ribbons, or of odd scraps of silk, thin wash materials left from summer gowns or even Japanese paper napkins. The girl who likes to make pretty knickknacks for the house or to give to her friends uses the dried clover blossoms to fill her pillows with. For both sachets and pillows the clover must be well cured. Gather the blossoms when they are perfectly ripe and dry them slowly in the shade until they are perfectly cured. Even brushes may be made from the clover stem. Cut the stalks in equal lengths while they are still pliant, bind them in the center with a cord and bring the ends together. Bind the top with another cord, leaving a loop for a hanger, and you will have a bunch of clover blossoms exactly the shape of a brush. If this is hung in a clothespress or in a room that is rather close it will do much to relieve the heaviness of the atmosphere. Aside from the uses of clover as a perfume and for fancy work, an excellent salad may be made of the blossoms arranged on a lettuce leaf with mayonnaise dressing. Another delicacy, the clover sandwich, may be made by putting a roll of fresh butter deep down in a pile of clean sweet clover and leaving it there until the butter has imbibed the scent of the clover. Spread the bread with this and cut in fancy shapes.

Substitutes For Closets.

A bedroom without a closet—a good, large closet at that—is a mistake, but fortunately not an irretrievable one, for there are many ways to make up for this deficiency, none, of course, quite as handy as the genuine receptacle.

An arrangement pictured consists of four crosswise boards held by two upright ones, the latter forming the sides and the others the top and bottom of the closet, and two shelves, one for hats and the other for shoes. The upper shelf is twelve inches deep, the lower one ten. This frame, being pushed close to the wall, needs no backing, nor is it necessary to screw hooks into the wall, as narrow strips of wood may be nailed across the backs from upright to upright and the hooks put in these. Any preferred style of curtains which harmonize with the other furnishings may be hung on a rod across the front, but the open back, although the closet is placed against the wall, requires something to keep out the dust, and this something can consist of a piece of thick linen or bed-ticking tacked closely over the opening. This may be washed when desired. A molding may give a finish to the top of the closet, or the top may be used as still a third shelf. Whatever portion of frame is visible should be painted to match the woodwork of the room.

Fashionable Candlesticks.

Even in the prevailing craze for candlesticks fashion has a correct mode for their use. Those of brass, copper or bronze are considered most desirable for the hall; delft or faience for the drawing room; in the dining room, silver or glass; in the boudoir, most elaborately beautiful affairs of gold, porcelain or china; for the bedroom dressing table, tall silver or china shapes; on the bedside table that holds the carafe of iced water, a low silver or china candlestick, with its extinguisher and silver match safe. Thus, while the candlestick has a place in each room of the modern house, its form and make express its use.—Table Talk.

Care of the Refrigerator.

Wash the refrigerator at least twice a week with a solution of bicarbonate of soda and flush the overflow pipe with a strong solution of hot water and washing soda. The neglect of such precautions is followed by the contamination of food stuffs, milk and butter being especially susceptible.

Removing Mildew.

Mildew is one of the most difficult of all stains to remove. Rub well with brown soap; then apply a paste of chalk and water and place the article in the sunshine. After two or three applications the stain will be bleached out.

A Hot Weather Dessert.

Ginger water ice is an excellent hot-weather dessert. Prepare a plain lemon ice and then flavor as desired with the strip from preserved ginger. When the ice is half frozen stir in chopped preserved ginger.

Weather

Fair with thunder storms tonight and Thursday.

KANGAROO COURT is in session at Fargo during the carnival. We hardly think Brainerd would stand for that.

BALTIMORE'S bank clearances showed an increase of something over a million dollars during the week the Elks' grand lodge was in session there, which goes to show that the members of that fraternity are not niggardly.

LISTEN to what the democratic mayor of St. Louis says: "I want honest, capable men appointed. If you can't find them among the democrats, appoint republicans." These are strenuous times in St. Louis political circles.

A LITTLE FALLS gentleman wrote State Auditor Iverson as follows: "Some one has told me that if a man in the country had seven sons born to him in succession and no females at all he got a reward from a king, and he has told me that he heard they get it here, too, so I drop these few lines to you asking you to answer if I could get such reward as a case of that kind has happened to me." To which the Transcript adds that the only advantage of having a family of seven sons in this state is that they are worth more about election time than are that many girls.

An Indian named Henry Jones was arrested at the Great Northern hotel, Park Rapids, while eating supper night before last by Deputy Sheriff Ressler for the murder of an Indian, named Smith, two miles east of Menasha. Fred Ames' Case Nolle.

Minneapolis, July 29.—Judge Simpson has ordered nolle entered in the three remaining cases standing against F. W. Ames on the criminal calendar. There were five indictments standing against Ames in all. On one he was tried and acquitted. In the second he was tried and convicted. He is now serving a six-and-a-half-year sentence in the penitentiary.

Jewels on an Idol.

The jewels of an Indian idol must be worth stealing if many of those remarkably hideous images possess such valuable head ornaments as one made for the idol Parthasathy, in the Triplicane temple at Madras. The ornament is worth some 50,000 rupees and is made of sovereign gold, studded with diamonds, emeralds and rubies, the largest emerald being valued at 1,000 rupees and the biggest ruby and diamond at 300 rupees apiece.

Keep Moving.

The heavens themselves run continually round; the world is never still; the sun travels to the east and to the west; the moon is ever changing in its course; the stars and planets have their constant motions; the air we breathe is continually agitated by the wind, and the waters never cease to ebb and flow, doubtless for the purpose of their conservation and to teach us that we should ever be in action.—Burton.

A Contrast in Lungs.

Three human lungs lie next one another in the anatomical museum at Edinburgh university. The first is that of an Eskimo and is snow white. In life this would, of course, be ruddy from the presence of blood. The third is that of a coal miner and is coal black. The intermediate one is that of a town dweller and is a dirty slate gray, as are the lungs of all dwellers in cities at this moment.

Knew of One.

"What is the favorite drink of tropical countries?" asked the caller in search of information.

"Can it be possible," said the answers to correspondents editor rather crossly—for it was a hot day—"that you have never heard of the negus of Abyssinia?"—Chicago Tribune.

For the Younger Women.

A very favorite style of dress at present for the jeune fille of Parisian society is of white batiste incrustated with English embroidery over some delicate color. The bodice, which is made just slightly blousing, is taken into a deep corselet of liberty silk in the same shade as that already appearing on the dress, and with this style of gown a large hat in Italian straw is generally worn, trimmed with black velvet and long white wings.

Family Bedroom.

"Aw! Bah Jove! That was an awfully jolly good thing you said at dinner, don'tcherknow. May I ask—whether it was impromptu?" "Impromptu? I should rather think it was! Why, my father and my father's father made that joke, sir."—Judy.

Some people are so conscientious about loving their enemies that if they haven't any they are perfectly willing to make a few.—Philadelphia Record.

A Hard Knock.

Mother—You children turn up your noses at everything on the table. When I was a child I was glad to get enough bread.

Tommy—I say, ma, you're having a better time of it now that you're living with us, ain't you?

Somewhat Worse.

"Said they were bad enough to put in the reform school."—Judge.

Not Unconscious of It.

"Well, not quite that bad, although it certainly was shocking."—Indianapolis Sun.

All Sorts.

THE PURE REASON.
Mary had a little lamb,
And that wound up the score;
She boarded in a boarding house
And dared not ask for more.

Man is naught but a lump of clay,
Gifted with hopes and fears,
And woman can mold him any old way

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

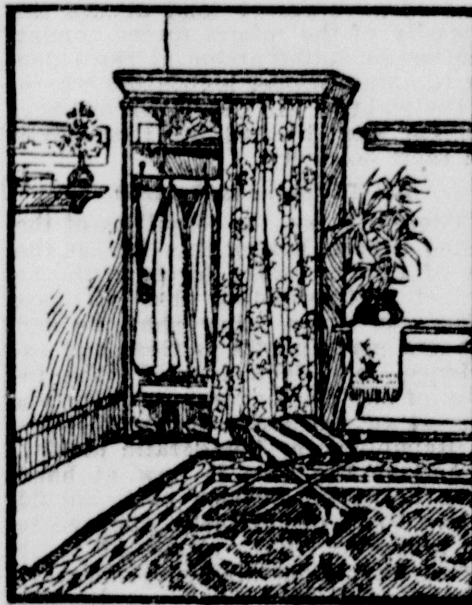

Clover Blossoms in the House.

The pretty red clover blossoms are to be had in great abundance in the summer season and require only a trip into the country to be obtained in any quantity desired. The housewife welcomes the clover blossoms, for they are just the thing to fill the sachet bags she uses in her linen closets. The sachets may be made of net, drawn up with narrow ribbons, or of odd scraps of silk, thin wash materials left from summer gowns or even Japanese paper napkins. The girl who likes to make pretty quickknacks for the house or to give to her friends uses the dried clover blossoms to fill her pillows with. For both sachets and pillows the clover must be well cured. Gather the blossoms when they are perfectly ripe and dry them slowly in the shade until they are perfectly cured. Even brushes may be made from the clover stem. Cut the stalks in equal lengths while they are still pliant, bind them in the center with a cord and bring the ends together. Bind the top with another cord, leaving a loop for a hanger, and you will have a bunch of clover blossoms exactly the shape of a brush. If this is hung in a clothespress or in a room that is rather close it will do much to relieve the heaviness of the atmosphere. Aside from the uses of clover as a perfume and for fancy work, an excellent salad may be made of the blossoms arranged on a lettuce leaf with mayonnaise dressing. Another delicacy, the clover sandwich, may be made by putting a roll of fresh butter deep down in a pile of clean sweet clover and leaving it there until the butter has imbibed the scent of the clover. Spread the bread with this and cut in fancy shapes.

Substitutes For Closets.

A bedroom without a closet—a good, large closet at that—is a mistake, but fortunately not an irretrievable one, for there are many ways to make up for this deficiency, none, of course, quite as handy as the genuine receptacle.

An arrangement pictured consists of four crosswise boards held by two upright ones, the latter forming the sides and the others the top and bottom of the closet, and two shelves, one for hats and the other for shoes. The upper shelf is twelve inches deep, the lower one ten. This frame, being pushed close to the wall, needs no

backing, nor is it necessary to screw hooks into the wall, as narrow strips of wood may be nailed across the backs from upright to upright and the hooks put in these. Any preferred style of curtains which harmonize with the other furnishings may be hung on a rod across the front, but the open back, although the closet is placed against the wall, requires something to keep out the dust, and this something can consist of a piece of thick linen or bed-ticking tacked closely over the opening. This may be washed when desired. A molding may give a finish to the top of the closet, or the top may be used as still a third shelf. Whatever portion of frame is visible should be painted to match the woodwork of the room.

Fashionable Candlesticks.

Even in the prevailing craze for candlesticks fashion has a correct mode for their use. Those of brass, copper or bronze are considered most desirable for the hall; delft or faience for the drawing room; in the dining room, silver or glass; in the boudoir, most elaborately beautiful affairs of gold, porcelain or china; for the bedroom dressing table, tall silver or china shapes; on the bedside table that holds the carafe of iced water, a low silver or china candlestick, with its extinguisher and silver match safe. Thus, while the candlestick has a place in each room of the modern house, its form and make express its use.—Table Talk.

Care of the Refrigerator.

Wash the refrigerator at least twice a week with a solution of bicarbonate of soda and flush the overflow pipe with a strong solution of hot water and washing soda. The neglect of such precautions is followed by the contamination of food stuffs, milk and butter being especially susceptible.

Removing Mildew.

Mildew is one of the most difficult of all stains to remove. Rub well with brown soap; then apply a paste of chalk and water and place the article in the sunshine. After two or three applications the stain will be bleached out.

A Hot Weather Dessert.

Ginger water ice is an excellent hot weather dessert. Prepare a plain lemon ice and then flavor as desired with the sirup from preserved ginger. When the ice is half frozen stir in chopped preserved ginger.

Mrs. E. B. McCullough, Mrs. J. P. Early,

Crust was not able to be present and T.
B. Hartley is at present out of the city.
Rev. A. H. Carver was made tempo-

the board proceeded to perfect a perma-

sult:

President—H. I. Cohen.

TWO DECREES GRANTED

Mrs. Lizzie Smith Carroll Gets a Legal
Separation from Her Husband—F. W.
Hall Divorced Again.

Yesterday afternoon Judge McClennan granted Mrs. Lizzie Smith Carroll a decree of absolute divorce from her husband, John Carroll, on the ground of desertion. The plaintiff was also given the care of the two minor children,
John and Ella Carroll.

Mrs. Carroll works in Gray's restaurant and has been a resident of this city for many years. About a year ago her husband left home and he has not been heard from since. It is supposed that he went away and staid away purposely
so that his wife would bring the action
for divorce.

Another decree was granted to F. W.
Hall, an attorney, from his wife, Veldora E. Hall. This is the second time they have been divorced in two years. About eighteen months ago the judge granted Hall a decree, but soon after that they made up and were married again. They found again that they could not live very amicably under the same roof and decided to disband.

PECULIAR DEPREDACTIONS.

A Painter Who Has Been Working About
the City Has an Odd Way of Making Money.

This morning just after J. C. Congdon left his shop a man came around and wanted to sell a large quantity of oil, which he claimed he had on hand. The workman who was in the shop at the time told the man that the boss was out and that he had no use for the oil. A few minutes afterwards the same man
was seen going to another painter's shop
and trying to sell the oil and he was followed and some inquiry was made of him regarding his oil.

It was ascertained that the man has been making a regular business of going around to different painters and had stolen at different times large quantities of oil, selling it again for a good price. One man alone is said to have lost about $25 worth of good oil.

Suggested Change of Date in the Leech

Lake Reservation Timber

Cuttings

Congressman Buckman left for home
yesterday after learning that Land Commissioner Richards had again postponed his return for another week, says a Washington correspondent. He had a talk with Acting Commissioner Fimple about the time for the removal of the timber on the forestry portion of the Leech Lake reservation and predicts
that the bidders will have until July 1, 1907, to remove the logs. The regulations have been drawn up and will be submitted to Acting Secretary Ryan today or tomorrow. No information about them will be given out in advance of approval by the department.

Mr. W. S. Benjamin, practical gang

did me so much good that I prevailed
on many others to use them, and I know many cases where benefit has resulted.
I had more or less pain and the renal secretions were acid in nature, thereby causing me considerable distress. I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from a

the effect of completely altering the

PUSHING WORK RAPIDLY

Work on the Extension of the Minnesota & International Has Progressed Very Satisfactorily This Year.

The construction crews on the Minnesota & International have been very busy during the past two or three months and the work on the extension
north has progressed very satisfactorily.
The rails have now been laid as far as Bridge and already there is a good little town at this point. A. Bowman, of Moorhead, has built a hotel and several store buildings will be built in a short time. It is claimed that this town will be one of the best on the line and that the townslike Phenix and others that have made such a spurt will ultimately die down and Bridge will reap a benefit.

DEBT WILL BE LIFTED.

Members of the First M. E. Church Have About Raised the Necessary
Amount to Lift the Mortgage

The members of the First M. E.
church have been working rather faithfully for a month or two to raise the debt that has been a hindrance for some time in the progress of the work in the church.

Their fondest expectations are about to be realized for they have about raised the necessary amount and a prominent member stated this morning that it would take but a few days more to raise the remaining amount. Dr.
Forbes during his term as presiding
elder commenced to raise the money
last winter and he gave the members of the church a good start by raising something like $700 at one meeting on a Sunday evening.

Demise of Timothy Hutchinson.

The funeral services of Timothy Angus, a child of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hutchinson, of 1207 Oak St., were held at the residence this afternoon at half past three o'clock. The exercises were conducted by Rev. A. H. Carver, and Miss Lottie White sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." Miss Dean and Miss White also sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." The remains were laid away in Evergreen cemetery. The child was taken sick Saturday night but no serious symptoms showed themselves until Monday when a physician was called.
The cause is thought to be that which acted as a poison and resulted in brain fever from which the little one could get no relief, and who died Tuesday afternoon at half past two o'clock. Deceased was two years and eight months old. The family have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

TWO DECREES GRANTED

Mrs. Lizzie Smith Carroll Gets a Legal
Separation from Her Husband—F. W.
Hall Divorced Again.

Yesterday afternoon Judge McClenahan granted Mrs. Lizzie Smith Carroll a decree of absolute divorce from her husband, John Carroll, on the ground of desertion. The plaintiff was also given the care of the two minor children, John and Ella Carroll.

Mrs. Carroll works in Gray's restaurant and has been a resident of this city for many years. About a year ago her husband left home and he has not been heard from since. It is supposed that he went away and staid away purposely so that his wife would bring the action for divorce.

Another decree was granted to F. W. Hall, an attorney, of Aitkin, from his wife, Veldora E. Hall. This is the second time they have been divorced in two years. About eighteen months ago the judge granted Hall a decree, but soon after that they made up and were married again. They found again that they could not live very amicably under the same roof and decided to disband.

A Painter Who Has Been Working About
the City Has an Odd Way of Making Money.

This morning just after J. C. Congdon left his shop a man came around and wanted to sell a large quantity of oil, which he claimed he had on hand. The workman who was in the shop at the time told the man that the boss was out and that he had no use for the oil. A few minutes afterwards the same man was seen going to another painter's shop and trying to sell the oil and he was followed, and some inquiry was made of him regarding his oil.

It was ascertained that the man has been making a regular business of going around to different painters and had stolen at different times large quantities of oil, selling it again for a good price. One man alone is said to have lost about $25 worth of good oil.

Congressman Buckman left for home yesterday after learning that Land Commissioner Richards had again postponed his return for another week, says a Washington correspondent. He had a talk with Acting Commissioner Fimple about the time for the removal of the timber on the forestry portion of the Leech Lake reservation and predicts that the bidders will have until July 1, 1907, to remove the logs. The regulations have been drawn up and will be submitted to Acting Secretary Ryan today or tomorrow. No information about them will be given out in advance of approval by the department.

AN INCIDENT OF HIS CADET DAYS

Novel Manner in Which He Regained
an Offended Landlady's Good Will
at Whose House He Dined—One of
His Deductions Which Was Unfa-
vorable to an Architect—Unique
Method of Criticizing an Art Class.

Every one who knew the late James
MacNeill Whistler, the American artist,
bore witness to his brilliant if sarcastic
wit, says the Philadelphia Press. An
admirer once said to him fulsomely,
"Mr. Whistler, there are only two great
painters—yourself and Velasquez."
"But," drawled the gentle artist, "why drag in Velasquez?" He was never disconcerted by any compliment. A lady spoke to him in enthusiastic terms
of the scenery along the Thames. "The
whole journey," she bubbled, "was like
a series of your superb etchings."
"Ye-es," vouchsafed Mr. Whistler. "Nature is creeping up." A young English impressionist once invited him to look at some of his work. Of one particularly bad specimen the youthful artist
remarked:

"Oh, it is only a pot boiler, intended
to keep the wolf from the door."

"Ah, I see!" retorted Whistler. "I
suppose you hang it outside the door?"

The story of the "peacock room" is
famous.

Fretted by a man whose room he was
decorating, he finished the decoration
by painting two peacocks, one with a long lock over its brow to represent
himself pecking at the other peacock.

While Whistler was at West Point
there was, in addition to regular cadet
mess, a private mess for twelve, of
whom Whistler was one, at the house
of an army officer's widow, says Chap
Book. One day the cadets conceived
the idea of having a little sport at the landlady's expense. The first cadet who came to the table said as he sat down:
"Good morning, Mrs. —. There is a cat on the roof of your house." The second cadet repeated the remark, except that he varied it by saying, "There are two cats on the roof of your house." Each cadet added a cat, until,
when Whistler, who was the last to arrive, sat down, he said gravely and with much concern: "Good morning, Mrs. —. There are twelve cats on the roof of your house."

During the next meal Whistler found
under his napkin a billet notifying him
that his presence at the mess was no
longer required. Being, however, averse
to returning to the general mess, Whis-
tler hit upon a plan to regain the widow's good will. After dinner he planted himself in front of a portrait of her
late lamented which hung in the parlor and appeared lost in admiration of
it. When he heard the widow entering
he began decanting, as if to himself,
yet loud enough for her to hear, upon
the virtues of the deceased, winding up with this exclamation:

"To think that West Point should
produce such a man and that we have
his portrait here to remind us of what we ourselves may attain to!" This
touched the widow so deeply that Whistler was re-established in her
good graces—and the mess.

At one time when Whistler was a guest at a dinner given by John Sargent, the well known portrait painter,
he dined royally and was very merry,
says the Hartford Courant. After dinner he asked Sargent if he might be excused while he wrote an important
note that had slipped his mind.
"Certainly, certainly," replied Sar-
gent. "You will find ink and writing
materials in the small room at the head of the stairs. Help yourself."
"Thanks," said Whistler and disappeared. Presently the other guests were startled by hearing a series of
bumps, ending in a heavy thud at the foot of the stairs. Whistler had tripped,
lost his balance and fallen in a heap.
Sargent rushed out, picked him up and anxiously asked if he was hurt.
"Hurt?" said Whistler, rubbing his
head. "Well, I'm not dead, if that's what you mean. But tell me—who built those stairs?" Sargent mentioned the name of a builder unknown to Whistler
or to fame.

"He did, did he?" said Whistler. "The
confounded teetotaler!"

Whistler was at work one day in his
studio surrounded by a group of admiring students, says the New York American. Mixing, studying and laboring, he turned to the students suddenly and remarked:

"I suppose you know what I am trying to do?"

"Oh, yes," they rejoined.

"Well, it's more than I know myself," he replied.

Once when forming a class he inquired of each pupil with whom he had studied before.

"With Julien," said one.

"Couldn't have done better," Whis-
tler replied.

"With Chase," said another.

"Couldn't have done better," commented Whistler.

"With Mowbray," said a third.

"Couldn't have done better."

He approached a student who was
slightly deaf and asked the question.

"Beg pardon," stammered the student.

"Couldn't have done better," responded Whistler, passing on to the next student.

NEW WINDOW DRAPERIES.

French and Italian Designs Mark
All Latest Fabrics.

The question of window and arch-
way draperies is a particularly live one
to the present day householder, says Harper's Bazar. We are entering upon what an English writer terms "a renaissance of interior decoration," and
the flood tide of French and Italian designs that marks all new fabrics quite
sustains his conclusion. There is no
phase of this study in which the impulse of invention is felt more strongly
than in that which deals with new draperies and their counterfeits, wall papers. The richest of today's novelties
in furniture coverings and draperies
are all in combinations that imitate the

AN INCIDENT OF HIS CADET DAYS

Novel Manner in Which He Regained
an Offended Landlady's Good Will
at Whose House He Dined—One of
His Deductions Which Was Unfa-
vorable to an Architect—Unique
Method of Criticizing an Art Class.

Every one who knew the late James
MacNeill Whistler, the American artist,
bore witness to his brilliant if sarcastic
wit, says the Philadelphia Press. An
admirer once said to him fulsomely,
"Mr. Whistler, there are only two great
painters—yourself and Velasquez."
"But," drawled the gentle artist, "why
drag in Velasquez?" He was never disconcerted by any compliment. A
lady spoke to him in enthusiastic terms
of the scenery along the Thames. "The
whole journey," she bubbled, "was like
a series of your superb etchings."
"Yes," vouchsafed Mr. Whistler. "Nature is creeping up." A young English
impressionist once invited him to look at some of his work. Of one particularly bad specimen the youthful artist remarked:

"Oh, it is only a pot boiler, intended
to keep the wolf from the door."

"Ah, I see!" retorted Whistler. "I
suppose you hang it outside the door?"

The story of the "peacock room" is
famous.

Fretted by a man whose room he was
decorating, he finished the decoration
by painting two peacocks, one with a
long lock over its brow to represent
himself pecking at the other peacock.

While Whistler was at West Point
there was, in addition to regular cadet
mess, a private mess for twelve, of
whom Whistler was one, at the house
of an army officer's widow, says Chap
Book. One day the cadets conceived
the idea of having a little sport at the
landlady's expense. The first cadet who
came to the table said as he sat down:

"Good morning, Mrs. —. There is a cat on the roof of your house."

The second cadet repeated the remark, except that he varied it by saying, "There are two cats on the roof of your house."

Each cadet added a cat, until, when Whistler, who was the last to arrive, sat down, he said gravely and with much concern: "Good morning, Mrs. —. There are twelve cats on the roof of your house."

During the next meal Whistler found
under his napkin a billet notifying him
that his presence at the mess was no
longer required. Being, however, averse
to returning to the general mess, Whis-
tler hit upon a plan to regain the widow's good will. After dinner he planted himself in front of a portrait of her
late lamented which hung in the parlor and appeared lost in admiration of
it. When he heard the widow entering
he began decanting, as if to himself,
yet loud enough for her to hear, upon
the virtues of the deceased, winding up
with this exclamation:

"To think that West Point should
produce such a man and that we have
his portrait here to remind us of what
we ourselves may attain to!" This
touched the widow so deeply that Whistler was re-established in her
good graces—and the mess.

At one time when Whistler was a
guest at a dinner given by John Sar-
gent, the well known portrait painter,
he dined royally and was very merry,
says the Hartford Courant. After dinner he asked Sargent if he might be
excused while he wrote an important
note that had slipped his mind.

"Certainly, certainly," replied Sar-
gent. "You will find ink and writing
materials in the small room at the head of the stairs. Help yourself."

"Thanks," said Whistler and disappeared. Presently the other guests
were startled by hearing a series of
bumps, ending in a heavy thud at the
foot of the stairs. Whistler had tripped,
lost his balance and fallen in a heap. Sargent rushed out, picked him up and anxiously asked if he was hurt.

"Hurt?" said Whistler, rubbing his
head. "Well, I'm not dead, if that's
what you mean. But tell me—who built
those stairs?" Sargent mentioned the name of a builder unknown to Whistler
or to fame.

"He did, did he?" said Whistler. "The
confounded teetotaler!"

Whistler was at work one day in his
studio surrounded by a group of ad-
miring students, says the New York
American. Mixing, studying and la-
boring, he turned to the students suddenly and remarked:

"I suppose you know what I am try-
ing to do?"

"Oh, yes," they rejoined.

"Well, it's more than I know my-
self," he replied.

Once when forming a class he in-
quired of each pupil with whom he had
studied before.

"With Julien," said one.

"Couldn't have done better," Whis-
tler replied.

"With Chase," said another.

"Couldn't have done better," commented Whistler.

"With Mowbray," said a third.

"Couldn't have done better."

He approached a student who was
slightly deaf and asked the question.

"Beg pardon," stammered the student.

"Couldn't have done better," responded Whistler, passing on to the next student.

NEW WINDOW DRAPERIES.

French and Italian Designs Mark
All Latest Fabrics.

The question of window and arch-
way draperies is a particularly live one
to the present day householder, says
Harper's Bazar. We are entering upon what an English writer terms "a renaissance of interior decoration," and
the flood tide of French and Italian de-
signs that marks all new fabrics quite
sustains his conclusion. There is no
phase of this study in which the im-
pulse of invention is felt more strongly
than in that which deals with new draperies and their counterfeits, wall papers. The richest of today's novelties
in furniture coverings and draperies
are all in combinations that imitate the
subdued tones of the late sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

Moiré damask in palest tan or the green of the mignonette, over which are impressionistic cream or pink flowers
and designs in leaf and scroll that unite the pale shades of green, blue, rose and brownish tans, is conspicuous. In all the new brocades and damasks, whether costly or of medium grade and again
repeated in lace embroideries, wall
papers and the more beautiful cere-tonnes, the tendency is toward the exquisitely detailed conventional garland and basket and lover's knot designs
which characterized French decorations of every class for a hundred or more years, preceding Napoleon. At the same time there is to be seen in draperies of high texture and in embroidered net
curtains a revival of Venetian and Florentine ornament.
